Consignment Contract

The following are the terms and conditions of the consignment agreement between the consignee and Tiffani's Bridal & Consignment:

All dresses must be cleaned, odor free, wrinkle free and pet hair free with no stains, holes, missing buttons, broken zippers and torn seams. We ask that all gowns brought in are four years or newer.

This contract will last six months and Tiffani's Bridal will work with you to agree upon the price of the items you consign. You will receive 50% of the selling price. Tiffani's Bridal reserves the right to discount merchandise regardless of the consignment date up to 20% off.

Ownership of items is retained by the consigner during the agreement period and all consigned items are left at your own risk. While we are very careful and trustworthy, the dresses are being tried on and handled and some wear should be expected. Tiffani's Bridal assumes no liability for fire, flood, theft, damage, loss or damage of merchandise by accident.

Tiffani's Bridal will not notify you when your contract ends or if your items have sold. At the end of the six months, you will have two weeks to pick up your items from the store or re-consign them for another term. After the two weeks, your items become the property of Tiffani's Bridal and may be donated to a local charity.

Customer confidentiality is a priority. Tiffani is the only one who has access to accounts to check if items have sold. If you call while she is gone she will give you a call back during her normal work hours. We need a 24 hour notice for item pick up.

If you wish to keep your garment bag, you need to take it with you at time of consignment. All unsold dresses will be returned in a clear plastic bag upon pickup.

You are responsible for updating your information with us if there is a phone number or address change. We will not reissue checks if sent to the wrong address.

Uncashed/unclaimed checks will be forfeited to Tiffani's Bridal & Consignment after one year.

I have read this contract in full and agree to the terms and conditions to consign my items at Tiffani's Bridal.
